FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

US CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RECOGNIZES CETRA

Elkins Park, PA, March 24, 2009 – Jiri Stejskal is pleased to announce that CETRA Language Solutions has been recognized as a 2009 Blue Ribbon Small Business Award winner by the US Chamber of Commerce.

The U.S. Chamber is the world's largest business federation representing more than 3 million businesses and organizations of every size, sector, and region.

America's Small Business of the Year Award, sponsored by Sam's Club®, pays tribute to businesses showcasing exemplary business practices in the areas of staff training and motivation, community involvement, customer service, and business and financial planning.

"Winners of the Blue Ribbon Small Business Award represent the country's finest business success stories. ... It is their dedication to strong business principles that will enable us to rebuild our nation's economy."

--U.S. Chamber President and CEO Tom Donohue

Jiri Stejskal says: "I am delighted that CETRA is among the 56 businesses in the nation that have received this year's Blue Ribbon Small Business Award. CETRA's employees, who made this possible, make me feel very proud."

CETRA provides customized language solutions to governments and businesses worldwide, including translation, interpretation, American Sign Language interpretation, localization, multilingual typesetting, voice-overs and transcriptions. CETRA specializes in serving the marketing research and legal arenas as well as the information technology, pharmaceutical, and human resources sectors. CETRA's President, Dr. Jiri Stejskal, is currently serving as President of the American Translators Association and as Vice President of the International Federation of Translators. A member of the US delegation to ISO, CETRA is the only language services provider actively involved in the development of an international translation quality standard.
