US CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BLUE RIBBON FOR CETRA

Elkins Park, PA, March 1, 2010– Jiri Stejskal is pleased to announce that CETRA Language Solutions has been recognized as a Blue Ribbon Small Business Award winner by the US Chamber of Commerce for the second year in a row.

The U.S. Chamber is the world's largest business federation representing more than 3 million businesses and organizations of every size, sector, and region.

The Blue Ribbon Small Business Award, sponsored by Sam's Club®, is designed to recognize businesses that demonstrate excellent business practices in several areas, including business strategy, employee development, community involvement, and customer service.

"This year's recipients of the Blue Ribbon Small Business Award are proof that the American entrepreneurial spirit is as strong as ever. We're relying on small businesses to lead us out of this recession, create new jobs, and get our economy moving again, and these companies are leading the way."

--U.S. Chamber President and CEO Tom Donohue

Jiri Stejskal says: "Winning this award repeatedly in the most challenging economic times really shows the dedication of the whole CETRA team. Our job is to facilitate communication across languages and cultures and we are proud of our success."

CETRA provides customized language solutions to governments and businesses worldwide, including translation, interpretation, American Sign Language interpretation, localization, multilingual typesetting, voice-overs, transcriptions, and other language-related services. CETRA specializes in serving the marketing research and legal arenas as well as the life sciences industry. CETRA's President, Dr. Jiri Stejskal, is the past President of the American Translators Association and currently serves as Vice President of the International Federation of Translators. A member of the US delegation to ISO, CETRA is the only language services provider actively involved in the development of an international translation quality standard.
