

CETRA Language Solutions Opens Office in Seoul, Korea

Philadelphia, PA, January 6, 2015 – Dr. Jiri Stejskal, President and CEO of CETRA, a leading language services provider headquartered in the United States, is pleased to announce the opening of a new company location in Seoul, Korea. CETRA’s presence in Seoul will not only allow the company to better meet the needs of businesses and government organizations in the Asia Pacific region, but will also enable CETRA to serve customers around the clock globally.

Dr. Stejskal says: “Asian countries are experiencing unprecedented growth and the demand for language services is soaring. CETRA is well positioned to fill this need thanks to its global support network and state-of-the-art technology.”

Ms. Hyunjoo Park, a native of Seoul, who has worked with CETRA as a senior project manager at its headquarters in Pennsylvania for many years, is the point of contact at the new office in Seoul. Ms. Park is supported by Ms. Kim Groff, senior project manager and fluent in Japanese, from CETRA’s US headquarters.

CETRA offers translation, website and software localization, and interpretation services to the market research, marketing, advertising, legal, and life sciences industries using a global network of professional linguists. CETRA’s team of multilingual project managers brings a wealth of diverse, worldwide experience to each request, and offers prompt and responsive assistance, insightful cultural consulting, and a proactive, partnering approach.

CETRA was founded in 1997 by Dr. Stejskal. The company currently ranks on the Common Sense Advisory’s list of the world’s top 100 Language Service Providers and the Inc. 5000 list of the fastest growing companies in the United States. CETRA is ISO 9001:2008, ISO 13485:2003 and EN 15038 certified.

For more information please visit www.cetra.com.

###

Contact:

Angela Wende, Chief Marketing Officer | angela.wende@cetra.com | 215-635-7090 ext. 148